

Shift the scales towards positive classroom experiences and rewarding student outcomes

Our mission is to give every young Australian a powerful literacy education.

PETAA is a not-for-profit member association, which means that teachers like you are our reason for being. We provide the professional development, resources, and support you need in your corner to most effectively teach your students and grow your career.

Why you should become a member:

Save time by receiving access to hundreds of high-quality, evidence-based, trusted books, papers, units and tools to use in the classroom. We'll send you three new books papers throughout the year to build your own professional resource library.

Trust you're getting the best professional development with PETAA professional learning and development. Learn any time, anywhere through with webinars, online and face-to-face courses, and best practice materials in our online archive.

Look forward with an organisation forging English and literacy teaching materials for the future: exploring sustainability, augmented reality, critical thinking, media literacy, and cultural diversity.

Give yourself the gifts of inspiration, insights and support from our networks of experts and peers by sharing stories, resources and ideas at PETAA events and via our online communities.

Grow your own way with a choice of a digital membership (all electronic materials) or a professional individual membership (hard copy books and papers)

Membership with PETAA gives you the keys to unlock, evolve, and expand your English teaching toolkit.

A 12 month individual membership starts at $100.
